46A Hope Street, White Gum Valley

UNDER OFFER By Rebekah Vos-Jamieson FremantleCo

GRAND, STATELY and SOLAR PASSIVE

Stately and grand, this beautiful home sits high on the hill on a corner block, a lovely spot to enjoy a breather out on the front porch and take in the sweeping valley views. With north facing living, plus solar panels producing electricity, modern design and smart living combined with a heritage aesthetic, blend to create the ideal character home for a modern lifestyle.

With extra high ceilings and stunning polished jarrah boards running throughout the living areas, entering the wide central hallway gives the impression you are stepping into a home of a much earlier vintage, a real Freo heritage ambience. Utilising up to date design principles, 46A hope Street offers the comfort we have come to expect from a well designed modern home. Fall in love with the character features but avoid all the extra work associated with maintaining an older property.
